Centerville Art Gallery Features Ronald G. Levi for December, Reception December 8

The Centerville Arts Commission is pleased to host a landscape photography exhibit, "Light on the Landscape" by Ronald G. Levi in the Art Gallery at the Centerville Police Department for December 2017. The Centerville Police Headquarters are located at 155 W. Spring Valley Road in Centerville. The exhibit may be viewed anytime, day or night. The Centerville Arts Commission will host a reception on Friday, December 8, 2017 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Art Gallery to introduce the collection to the community. Ronald G. Levi will be present to meet the public, and light refreshments will be served. The exhibit may be viewed anytime, day or night.

Ronald G. Levi is a landscape/nature photographer living in Springboro, Ohio who specializes in natural and scenic photography. Ron photographs using the latest 35mm and medium format digital equipment. He concentrates his work to scenic areas, national parks, wildlife refuges and preserves across United States and Canada. He is interested in helping people appreciate and understand the importance of preserving our fragile natural world for future generations. Each year Ron travels many miles to photograph new images of our natural and man-made world. For more information, you can visit www.ronaldgleviphotography.com.

The Centerville Arts Commission was created by Centerville City Council to involve the citizens of the Centerville area in the visual and performing arts.
