Centerville Art Gallery Reception to be held on February 9 6:00-8:00 p.m. for Kim Ceccarelli

The Centerville Arts Commission is pleased to host an exhibit by Kim Ceccarelli in the Art Gallery at the Centerville Police Department for February 2018. The Police Headquarters are located at 155 W. Spring Valley Road in Centerville. The exhibit may be viewed anytime, day or night.

The Centerville Arts Commission will host a reception on Friday, February 9, 2018 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the Art Gallery to introduce the collection to the community. Kim Ceccarelli will be present to meet the public, and light refreshments will be served. The exhibit may be viewed anytime, day or night.

Kim Ceccarelli was born in Aliquippa, Pa. and currently lives in Beaver Creek. Kim enjoys creating paintings in oils and pastels. She enjoys painting landscapes and flowers en plein air, portraits of intriguing people she has met on her travels, and more recently, abstract renditions of ideas and emotions. Kim's art work reflects her discoveries and rediscoveries of peace, serenity, strength, and beauty. Kim's experiences as a nurse have taught her to search for what brings others healing and to remember to be forever grateful for life's blessings.
